Highfields CEO Brian Philson named Michigan Federation for Children and Families Ambassador of the Year

Onondaga, Michigan – October 2, 2023 – The Michigan Federation for Children and Families brings together the best in human services and public health organizations, academic institutions, philanthropic entities, the business sector, and loyal volunteers to advance the best outcomes for children and families. Collectively, Federation member agencies serve over 88,000 children and 130,000 adults throughout the state.

Brian Philson, President & CEO of Highfields, Inc., is presented with the 2023 Federation Member Ambassador of the year award for his commitment to the Federation's core values. "The Michigan Federation for Children and Families is an amazing organization that makes it easy to support and get behind," said Brian. "I am honored to be recognized with their 2023 Ambassador of the Year award." Highfields is proud to have a President and CEO who is highly regarded in the state of Michigan for his philanthropic values.
